WHNA BOARD MEETING

Call to Order: 7:03 p.m.

Secretary's Report –Crystal Hughes asked if there were any corrections to January's minutes that had been posted on the website. Upon hearing of no corrections to the minutes, approval was requested. Minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report – Mary Walraven gave a report for January. Previous balance was $11,860.46. Income was $2,708.00 and expenses were $372.12 creating a new balance of $14,196.34.

Safety/VIP Program – Mike Gorman gave the January Crime Report. The most incidents for January were at the Walnut Creek Estates. There were 11 criminal activities reported to Mike. The activity that Mike gets from the game cameras posted by the wall shows students going over the wall.

The VIP program's objectives are to:

- 1) Reduce crime
- 2) More cameras posted around neighborhood
- 3) Have WHNA purchase more cameras
- 4) Have WHNA pay for cloud storage fees
- 5) Have WHNA pay for legal review of sponsored cameras
- 6) Get WHNA residents to assist by purchasing their own cameras or if they have cameras, review what is on their cameras and share that information with VIP.

Membership Report – Joe O'Brien reports that 125 residents have paid their membership dues. He would like to get more people to help sign up those residents that have not paid membership dues for 2016.

Social and Dine Out – Since Paulette Standefer was absent Holt Mitchell reported that the next dine out will be on February 16th at the Fish Shack

Apartment Monitoring – William Elliot reported the murder that happened on January the 13th at Walnut Bend Apartments.

Elections/Voting– Susie Leinneweber advised that if a voter needed to make any changes at the Elections Department, including address or name changes, that they should get that sent in immediately. Susie has the necessary forms to make the changes. She reported that it is too late to register to vote in the March primary. She also informed that early voting will be starting soon for the primary and she has a list of all the early voting locations. During early voting a voter can vote at any of the early voting locations.

Social Media – Lynn Peltier pointed out a bogus item that had been posted on Next Door. She cautioned users of Next Door to be careful about comments that may be made on that website.

Grounds and Park- Tim Wilburn and Mike Adams have been looking at the entrances to the north and south end of Whispering Hills. They have measured the flower beds to see how much area they need to work with at both entrances. They are asking for volunteers to work with their committee. There will be a meeting this Saturday the 13th at 11:am. The yard of the month for January is 10101 Chisholm.

Vice President – Holt Mitchell gave the update on stop signs with the new red tape on Whispering Hills. Holt also reported on the traffic study at Deermont and Whispering Hills. There are over 4,000 vehicles traveling pass this intersection every day. The study reveals that 62% were speeding northbound and 56% were speeding southbound. Holt said that WHNA cannot get speed bumps on Whispering Hills due to the fire department’s objections. Holt said he is looking at the possibility of getting radar signs.

President – Holt Mitchell, acting as interim President, introduced Ron Galloway as the candidate for President of WHNA. Ron listed his history with WHNA. He and his wife Bonnie have been residents of Whispering Hills for 16 years and during those years he has been an active resident. Ron stated his goal as President is to establish more community atmosphere in Whispering Hills. He intends to speak with the planning and zoning commission about getting a turn circle on Walnut to reduce the U-turns made by apartment residents at Walnut and Whispering Hills. Ron would also like to see WHNA get to 250 members.

Holt made a motion for the board to approve Ron as President of WHNA. The board approved the motion by a unanimous vote.

Meeting was adjourned – at 7:48pm
