Call to Order: 7:05 p.m.

Secretary's Report - Holt Mitchell - Approval of May Meeting Minutes – Minutes were approved as written.

Treasurer's Report - Rich Harms – Finance Report – Around $14,900 in the bank. Recent expenses include $300 for directories and $375 for ground maintenance.

Whispering Hills NPO- Officer Josh Cooper– Recent Police Activity – Additional patrols will be assigned to Friendship Park. Starting July 1st, crime initiative will take place in the area. Aggravated robberies are up in the surrounding area around Forest – Audelia, but not our neighborhood. Solicitors must have permit from city. When calling 911, report fights or drug activity as a “suspicious person”, as police will respond faster.

Safety Committee-VIP Program – Mike Gorman- Mike has noticed many opened garage door, and has been posting flyers on the open doors to remind neighbors to keep the door shut when unattended. Mike also volunteered to chair the Safety Committee; the Board unanimously approved. In the last month, one theft on Whispering Hills Drive and 2 keyed cars in the neighborhood. Volunteers are needed for the VIP Program.

Neighborhood Safety

Friendship Park- Basketball Court Crime Magnet/ More Police Patrols- Petition to remove basketball court at park was discussed with support and opposition. Neighbors all agreed that more police patrols are needed at park.

Holt Mitchell- Stop signs on Whispering Hills- City councilman will be contacted for additional stop signs on Whispering Hills Drive, as the Dallas Streets Department denied the requests.

Social and Dine Out – Ancanetta Wright- Next dine out will take place at Venezia Italian Cafe on June 23rd at 6:30 pm.

Upcoming Events- Dates of Board Meetings- The next meeting will be held on July 13th at Liberty.

Neighborhood Beautification

Rich Harms- New yard of the month signs will be ordered this month. It was suggested a poll be held on nextdoor for future yard of the month voting.

Holt Mitchell – 24 new street name signs along intersections with Whispering Hills Drive have been installed by the city; signs now visible and reflective at night. Storm drain near Panther ridge trail and Whispering Hills Drive has been cleared of blockage that was causing flooding on road.
